Enclosure

23rd March, 1925.

Dear Sirs,

With reference to the case of your steamer "CORNISH MERCHANT", I am directed to draw your attention to the fact that the fees and expenses, as set forth on the enclosed account, for the Special Survey by the Society's Surveyors during construction of this vessel, still remain outstanding, and that in accordance with Section 30 of the Society's Rules, the class of the vessel is liable to be withheld, or if already granted, may be withdrawn or expunged from the Register Book in the case of non-payment of any fees or expenses chargeable on account of such vessel.

The record of the vessel stands in the Society's Register Book as 4100A1 (Class Contemplated,) and I am to say that the Certificate of Classification cannot be issued until the fees are paid, and I shall be glad to learn whether you are prepared to forward a remittance in settlement at once.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Messrs. The Cornish Traders, Ltd.,
