Dear Sir,

I was duly favoured with your letter of the 25th ultimo enclosing Jacksonville Report No. 1215 on the Motorship "CAPE CLEAR", together with correspondence which has recently taken place with the Owners.

As desired, I have discussed the case with Mr. Shearer, and he has promised to let you have a further letter in regard to the General Examination and Loadline Renewal Survey as soon as he is in a position to say when and where these inspections will be carried out.

The report and correspondence are returned herewith.

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,
