Dear Sirs,

S. I duly received your letter of the 7th instant respecting the case of the steamer "GYPSUM EMPRESS", and note that the Builders have passed the Society's account for payment, which will be settled in the usual course towards the end of this month, and that they express the hope that the full particulars of the steamer will be entered in the forthcoming reprint of the Register Book, in anticipation of the early payment of the amount due.

I have the pleasure to say that in the special circumstances this will be done.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,

MIDDLESBROUGH.
