20th July, 1938.

Dear Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 11th instant in regard to the case of the steamer "AYMERIC", and have carefully noted your remarks. It is concluded that Mr. Butler has now arrived at your port, and in the circumstances his report on the vessel is awaited before any further action is taken.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

pro Secretary.

B. Peskett, Esq.,

CALCUTTA.
