Dear Sir,

Communications to be addressed to
THE SURVEYORS.

T

In reply to your letter of the 9th instant re fees outstanding against m.v. "ARTHUR TOWN", the Builders reported that they are still waiting to hear from the Owner that the auxiliary steering gear they supplied as approved in your letter of the 17th December 1936 is placed on board.

They stated that the Owner reported that he is very satisfied with her and he has ordered a sister vessel with them, but they have requested him again to take the matter up with you so as to have the certificate issued and promised to pay the fees immediately they hear from the Owner.

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,

The Secretary.
