Dear Mr. Ward,

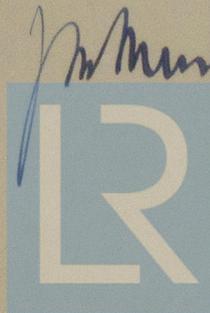

"DINSDALE".

I have asked the owners of this ship what they want done about the indented keel plate and they say that as it is a builders' liability, they would prefer it to be mentioned in the Special Reasons list as you suggest.

They agree with your view that it would be unfortunate if the ship did not have a clean certificate to start with.

Yours sincerely,

R.L.J.Ward Esq., B.Sc.,
