Sirs,

s.s. "ANNAGHER" IN COLLISION WITH s.s. "MORLAIX".

Referring to our conversation of this morning reference to the damage sustained by the s.s. "ANNAGHER". regret to advise you that, at the moment, we are not in a tion to carry out permanent repairs in accordance with the worthy Certificate.

As you are aware, we have got the s.s. "CLANDEBOYE" s.s. "ORANMORE" under Special Survey here at present, and these, rding to arrangements, are to be followed up by the
"BLACKWATER" and s.s. "BLACKSOD" respectively.

At the time the Seaworthy Certificate was issued writer had the pleasure of discussing the damage with one of principals at London, and he was quite satisfied that the ge and temporary repairs as carried out, were of such a re that the vessel could carry on for a considerable time, we have no doubt whatever if he were communicated with, he d not have the slightest hesitation in extending the Seaworthy ificate for say another two months.

With regard to the Special Survey on the Boiler. We can re you this will be carried out at the next Boiler Cleaning at ast.

Yours faithfully,
For JOHN KELLY, LTD.
