The Secretary,
Lloyd's Register of Shipping,
L O N D O N.

Dear Sir,

S.S. "ATHENDLAE"

We have your letter of yesterday, and the information that this steamer has been sold to us, through the agency of Messrs. Thomas Pinkney & Sons of Sunderland, to be broken up, is correct.

We were not informed by Messrs. Pinkney or anyone else with regard to the arrangement you had made with the late owners.

We bought the vessel as she lay in Tyne Dock and stipulated for a B.O.T. Certificate of Seaworthiness. We were informed on 25th September by Messrs. Pinkney that the Board of Trade did not issue any certificate of seaworthiness, and on reference to your Register Book we agreed, as she was a classed ship, that no provision be made for it.

We are taking up the matter with Messrs. Pinkney.

Yours faithfully,

Douglas & Ramsey
