Dear Sir,

s.s. "ATHENDALE".

With reference to your letter of 9th inst. we have to regret that while the shipping movements recorded in the local Press are kept under close observation, the fact of this vessel having left the Port on 3rd inst. was overlooked.

We have communicated with the late Owners, who state that they were not in a position to give us any information on the subject as the vessel had been taken out of their hands by the Bank. They understand, however, that she has been sold to a Shipbreaking Firm through the Agency of Messrs. Thomas Pinkney & Sons. On enquiry of Messrs. Pinkney we are informed that the Shipbreaking Firm in question is Messrs. Douglas & Ramsay.

We are, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,
