Fleetwood, 7th March, 1933.

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter of 3rd instant relating to the steam trawler " CITY OF YORK ", and after two visits to the manager, Mr Cardwell, I have not yet obtained a letter on behalf of the Owners to state the Company's intention regarding this vessel's class.

However today I am informed that there will be a meeting of the Directors this week and a decision arrived at. As soon as the letter is delivered to me I shall forward ^{it} forthwith.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

W. S. Shields

Surveyor.

The Secretary,
