S/S "ZEPPELIN"

Telephoned to Mr. Veale of the Orient Steam Navigation Company Ltd., in regard to the plans of this vessel and he stated they did not approach the builders for the plans in view of attitude taken up by them ^{over} with similar requests which had been by other British Owners. Mr. Veale also stated he understood Mr. Peacock, the Company's Marine Superintendent, that the Society's Surveyor at Amsterdam had suggested that if he (the Surveyor) wrote a private letter to the Society's Surveyor at Bremen this gentleman might be able to obtain the plans from the Builders.
