

Lloyd's Register of Shipping,

Maritime Buildings, East Dock Street,

Dundee, 13th February, 1933.

Sir,

In reply to the enquiry contained in your letter of the 10th instant, having reference to the previous correspondence relative to the S.S. "SCOTSCRAIG", we beg to inform you that nothing has been done at this Port since the vessel's arrival in December, 1932 regarding the cleaning of the main boilers and engine room tank, nor to any other matter whatever.

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,
