26th October, 1920.

Dear Sirs,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 25th instant, intimating that you have been requested by the Agents of the P. & O. Co. to make an examination of the bottom of the ex-German Steamer "BERLIN", which is being sold to the International Mercantile Marine Co., and I have to confirm my telegram to you to-day as follows:-

"BERLIN IN SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES AUTHORISE YOU EXAMINE
"VESSEL IN DRYDOCK AND ISSUE REPORT TO P AND O REGARDING
"CONDITION OF BOTTOM".

You will, of course, make it quite clear in your Report that your examination is confined to the parts of the vessel actually seen by you.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,
SOUTHAMPTON.
