6th July, 1933.

Dear Sirs,

Mr. Cannon, one of the Society's Surveyors at Curacao, who is now on leave of absence in this Country, has received a cablegram from the Society's Curacao Office reading as follows :-

"Pacifoil Melbourne request us mail urgently recorded
"ullages and soundings taken throughout vessel Vincas
"Stop No data available here Stop. Cable received reply
"paid."

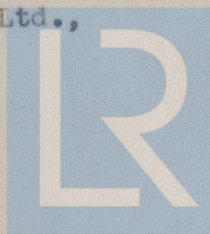

In the circumstances, Mr. Cannon, who was on holiday in the North of Scotland, thought it desirable to come to London to consult this Office in regard to the matter, and also to again inspect the official reports on the ship, and he has now prepared a statement giving in full detail the information desired by you. This statement is being forwarded through the Society's Surveyors at Melbourne, together with an account for the fee charged and for Mr. Cannon's expenses in connexion with the matter.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Messrs. The Pacific Oil Co. Pty. Ltd.,
517-519, Collins Street,
MELBOURNE, C.1.
