

FREE TRANSLATION OF LETTER RECEIVED FROM MESSRS SCOPINICH & MONTA

(S. CAPPIELLO)

Genoa, 9th January 1933.

Messrs LLOYD'S REGISTER OF SHIPPING
GENOA.

per "PRESTO"

I hasten to inform you that in spite of all my best in-de and the promise made in accordance with instructions issued General Direction of Lloyd's Register London, I find it ably impossible to carry out here at Genoa ^{the small & insignificant items} ~~what remains~~ to com-the S.S.N°2 because of the fact that I have not been able to the steamer with a later cancelling date and there remains no whatsoever for the carrying out of the foregoing, as the steamer
" must leave immediately on completion of discharge in order not the charter.

The above mentioned work will be dealt with on the vessel's arrival at a U.K. Port where she will go to discharge her cargo Russia whither she is now bound.

Yours faithfully
(Sgd) S. Cappiello
