15th August, 1934.

Dear Sirs,

I have to inform you that the s.s. "ATHELCREST" which has been laid up at Lamlash in the Clyde under an undertaking in respect of the overdue Second Special Survey No.1, left in tow last week for your port, where it is understood she is to be used as a store ship.

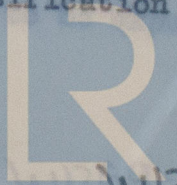

As the late Owners, the United Molasses Co., Ltd., did not require a survey to be carried out with a view to an interim certificate being issued for the voyage, the vessel's class has been expunged from the Register Book with a Red Line.

It is understood from the late Owners that the new Owners, Messrs. N.V. Vlissinghe Mineraalolie en Asphalt Raffinaderij, Flushing, are not interested in maintaining the vessel's class, and I shall be glad if you can ascertain from the Owners that this is so and that the vessel is only to be used as a store.

I am, Dear Sirs,
Yours faithfully,

The Surveyors,
ROTTERDAM.

Clerk to the Classification Committee.
