4th April, 1911.

Gentlemen,

Page 17
S. I have to acquaint you that Mr. William Quastler, the Manager of the Hungarian Levant Steamship Co. Lim., has called at this Office today requesting that the classification certificates for the new steamer "ERDELY" may be issued without delay. He states that the vessel is loaded and that the survey is complete.

I therefore wired you today as follows, and trust that your reports will be forwarded tonight if as is concluded the survey has been completed:-

"ERDELY survey stated complete please forward reports
"tonight certificates urgently required".

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

Secretary

The Surveyors,

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE.
