

21st July 1909.

Sir I beg to acquaint you that a new steamer built here by the Dublin Dockyard & is to be shutty up now, for Belfast - now to be fitted with her Machinery by Messrs. McCall & Co. The engine and the boiler are to be completed in the boiler at being placed.
The discharge valves are not fitted.
A plan of the pumping arrangement is enclosed for reference.

I am Sir
Yours Most Obedt Servant
Macmillan

To the Surveyor Belfast.

© 2020

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

W1285-0208