11th April, 1935.

Dear Sirs,

S.S. "OAKGROVE".

I am in receipt of your letter of the 9th instar and carefully note what you say in further reference to the case of this vessel.

The Committee quite agree with you that it will serve no useful purpose to continue the correspondence on the subject, regarding which your views and theirs do not coincide.

At the same time they would like to assure you that no one regrets more than they do the disturbance in a business relationship which has existed for so long a period to the mutual advantage of your goodselves and this Society, especially as the present difference of opinion is one which they cannot but regard as neither necessary nor desirable in the interests of either party.

I am, Dear Sirs,
Yours faithfully,

Messrs. D. & W.
95, B.

Sons,
GLASGOW, C.2.
