5th October, 1912.

D. Sir,

I have to confirm the following telegram sent to you today, namely:-

"'CAMOSUN' please return immediately all correspondence attached to reports sent you August 8 9", and I have no doubt that you will be good enough to cause it to receive prompt attention.

Should it not be possible to return the correspondence today, I shall be glad to have a wire on Monday morning stating that you will be sending it back on that day.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

Secretary.

The Secretary,

GLASGOW.
