

Copy.

342 Argyle Street,
Glasgow, 19th February 1906.

Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 15th inst., I beg to transmit herewith a letter received from Mr. Mares respecting the stepping of the masts of the steamer "Camosun", referred to in Owners' letter of the 27th ultimo attached hereto, also a letter received from Mr. H.G. Smith having regard to the electric wiring on this vessel.

I may state for the Committee's information, that I understand from the Builders there is a dispute between them and the owners regarding some extras which Mr. Legg, the Manager Owner of the Company, sanctioned when in this Country just before the vessel was completed.

The letter referred to is returned herewith as requested.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

"T. J. Dodd."

Secretary.

Andrew Scott Esq.,
