342 Argyle Street,
Glasgow, 29th May 1906.

Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 26th inst., respecting the steamer "Camosun", built under special survey at Paisley early last year, I beg to state that there is nothing to add to that which was said by Mr. J.D. Mares and Mr. H. Gardner Smith in March last.

Mr. Smith has, however, handed me the enclosed letter and I may say that the ship Surveyor Mr. J. D. Mares under whose survey the hull was built is now in the London Office and would suggest that this correspondence be handed to him.

The letter dated 7th May received from the Owners I beg to return herewith as requested.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

"T. J. Dodd."

Secretary.

Andrew Scott Esq.,
