Boiler Survey due 8, 32.

Special Survey No. 3 due 5, 33.

Action regarding this case has been deferred from time to time in view of the fact that the ship has been laid up.

With regard to the Boiler Survey, the New York Surveyors stated in November last they had been informed by the Owners that steam had not been raised in the boilers during the period the vessel had been laid up, and it was arranged that a general examination of these boilers should be made prior to steam being raised in them at any time.

In reply to further enquiry the New York Surveyors
