

"MARIE THERESE LE BORGNE"

Lloyd's List 10.3.37

Barcelona, Mar. 8.—A triple-engined insurgent plane dropped several bombs this morning at the French steamer MARIE THERESE LE BORGNE. This vessel struck a mine off the Spanish coast a week ago and has since been lying at the little port of Palamos, about 60 miles north-east of Barcelona, badly damaged in her forward holds. All the bombs this morning missed their mark.—Reuter.

Barcelona, Mar. 9. — The Catalan authorities this morning ordered the sinking of the French steamer MARIE THERESE LE BORGNE, which recently went aground in the port of Palamos after striking a mine.—British United Press.

Gibraltar, Mar. 9.—Norwegian steamer ROLF JARL was detained at Ceuta on Mar. 7, but was released to-day complete with cargo.—Lloyd's Agent.
