Trieste, 29th September, 1913.

Sir,

Referring your letter of 31st July re the case of the "NIMROD" enclosing copy of Greenock Report 16512, we were advised on the 5th instant by the Greenock Surveyors that they had received payment of £ 15.9.8 to the credit of our office.

We are now advised under date 25th September they have received payment of £ 3.2.0 and have placed the same to our credit.

Please advise us, if this latter amount is one proportion of the extra 20% due to the vessel having also Veritas class.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

W. J. Booth
Secretary.
