Dear Sir,

10th December, 1941.

We thank you for your letter of the 8th inst. and would state we are quite aware of the basis for fees as set forth in the Society's rules, but there is nothing there to indicate how the Society is dealing with special conditions occasioned by the present state of hostilities and repairs under the Lease Lend Act.

With particular reference to the "Wellfield" this vessel was generally examined in and out of drydock for part Special No.1 Survey, and in this respect we shall be pleased to know whether special survey fees are to be charged for this or whether the survey will be spread over 4 years and the fees apportioned in a similar manner.

We shall be pleased to have your comments in due course.

Yours faithfully,
For HUNTING & SON, LTD.,
