

Submitted the Plymouth Surveyor should be reminded of the requirements of the Secretary's letter of the 15 March '12 in which it is stated that the openings in the casing must be suitably protected for the voyage out to South America to his entire satisfaction, and he should make arrangements and see that this is done before the vessel leaves.

E. B. L.
4.2.13

© 2021

Lloyd's Register
Foundation
W1373-0158