31st October 1913.

Sir,

In reply to your enquiry by telephone to-day regarding "B.H.C. No.13", I beg to state that the repairs to this vessel are nearly completed and we hope to forward our report on Tuesday or Wednesday next at which date it is expected the vessel will be handed over.

I may add that since our last letter I have learned that the vessel grounded on the South bank after striking the pier at Blyth.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

George Harrison

The Secretary,
LONDON.
