Sir,

In reply to your letter of 22nd. inst regarding the travelling expenses on the North of Ireland SS. No. 70 (SS. "Assiout"), I beg to inform you that the travelling expenses incurred by the Belfast Surveyors consequent upon the machinery being fitted into the vessels at Londonderry built by this firm are - as per arrangement- rendered to, and paid by the shipbuilders.

Consequently it will not be necessary for the Manchester Surveyors to charge our expenses to the British Westinghouse Coy. in this instance.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

The Surveyors,
