Ocean Chambers, Lowgate,

Hull, 25th May 1904

Gentlemen

I beg to inform you that the new steam Drifters "City of Edinburgh", and "City of London", built in this district, have to-day sailed for Peterhead, where they are due on Monday, and to render them eligible for L.M.C. 5.04 the safety valves should be fitted with easing gear, this is to be done at Peterhead. Will you kindly give the necessary attention, and report to London in the usual course.

I am, Gentlemen

Your obedient Servant.

James Barclay

The Surveyors
Aberdeen.
