Copy of a letter received from Messrs. R. Irvin & Sons Ltd., of Peterhead on the 17th June, 1912 respecting the steam drifters belonging to the London & Peterhead Steam Fishing Company.

Peterhead, 15th June, 1912

Dear Sir,

We thank you for your favour of yesterday. The Directors Meeting of the London & Peterhead Company will be held in the course of the next week or two, and certainly within the next month. We have informed the Secretary of the Company of your reply.

We are pleased to note that your Committee have meantime deferred the further consideration of the case of the steam drifter "PROMISE" pending receipt of our further communication
