PETERHEAD, 11th June, 1912.

Dear Sirs,

We have a letter to-day from the Secretary of the London & Peterhead Company stating that he has bringing your letter before their next Directors Meeting to see what they intend to do re classification of their Drifters. Immediately after the Meeting, he will write you on the matter.

We are also in receipt of your letter of the 7th instant re Steam Drifter "Prominent". This vessel is partly owned by the Skipper and Mate, and we will consult with them as to whether or not they wish the Boat re-classed at Lloyds.

We are,

Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,
