Ocean Chambers, Lowgate,

Hull, 13th June 1904

reference

Gentlemen.

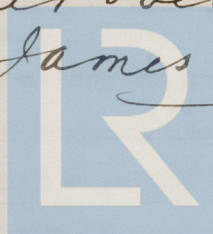

The new steam drifter "City of Glasgow," built in this district has left here today and is due in Peterhead next week, and to render her eligible for the notation of  $\frac{1}{2}$  L.M.C. 6.04 in the Register Book; A spare set of coupling bolts, is to be put on board, probably at the above named port.

Will you kindly give the necessary attention, and report to London in the usual course.

I am, Gentlemen.

Your obedient servant
James Barclay
