I am in receipt of your letter of the 18th inst. for which I 1.

"Doctor Saboia" If I surveyed this vessel the bunkers, engine er spaces were examined as I always go thoroughly over every-survey.

I am sorry I cannot forward the marks on the anchors and chains pers relating to this survey were left in Pará. If I remember ee new anchors were put aboard whilst the survey was being carri-"Coronel" This survey was not completed when I left Pará and I following letter to Lloyds Agents before I returned to England:-

River Steamer "Coronel"

The survey on the above was started on February 27th 1914, but es and boilers have been completed, for which I have given form filled in. The vessel was examined below, bilge strake from the appesrance under ceiling it seems alright, as cement en disturbed. All that remains to be done is to have all iron-hly chipped and painted.

Yours etc.

I told the owners before starting the survey that I would it out on the mud and send my report in, but, I did not think it be accepted by Lloyds.

I also mentioned to Lloyds Agents that it would be advisable to the survey on Hull put in the hands of another engineer, who could start and finish the job, as it would not be any more expense to the as I had not made any charge for the work carried out.

Yours faithfully,
