Belfast, 22nd September, 1904.

The Secretary,

Sir,

With reference to your letter of 11/9/01, re obtaining the written consent of the Owners to deviations from the Rules with regard to fitting close ceiling, I respectfully request to be informed if, in the case of the specification of a vessel stating that the close ceiling is not to be fitted, except over limbers and under hatchways, it is necessary to obtain the written consent of the Owners to the deviation from the Rules in question.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

(sgd) E.J.Milton.
