reference

The Secretary,
London.

Dear Sir,

With regard to the Fees and Expenses chargeable in the case of the M.V. "ATHELCHIEF" Messrs The Caledon Shipbuilding & Engineering Co's No.294, I shall be glad to know if any of the expenses incurred by the Senior Ship Surveyor from Glasgow in visiting the vessel during its construction are to be charged to the Builders.

These visits were made in accordance with instructions received from you, and the expenses incurred amount to £35 : 7 : 6.

The First Entry Report is being forwarded to your office by to-day's post, and it is proposed to render the account for Fees etc., on receipt of instructions regarding the expenses.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,
