23rd January, 1922.

Dear Sir,

With reference to the surveys which are overdue on the Screwshafts of the Steamers "WEST INDIAN" and "WESTERN CITY", I shall be glad if you will ascertain and let me know what arrangements have been made for these inspections to take place.

At the same time you will be so good as to ascertain from the Surveyors and let me know whether the Screwshafts of these vessels are fitted with continuous liners, and if not whether the joints have been burned as required by the Rules.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Secretary,
NEW YORK.
