M.V. "ARARAQUARA".

Cantiere Navale Triestino No. 176.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of 15th instant I have to inform you that the hull and ⁴ part of the machinery fees charged in Trieste, in connection with Trieste first entry report No. 7742 on the above Motor Vessel, have been paid and notified to you on form A/C 1 on the 16th instant.

We understand that the Genoa fees for the survey of the machinery during construction were paid about a month ago, of which no doubt you will have received due notice.

A letter has been sent to the Genoa Surveyors requesting them to obtain the sanction of the engine makers to hand over the machinery certificates direct to Messrs. J. Campbell & Son in this case, also for the succeeding vessels "ARACATUBA" and "ARATIMBO", Cantiere Navale Triestino's Nos. 177 & 178, and to notify you direct.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

N. G. Turnbull

The Secretary,
