"PADUA". With reference to this case, I have to inform you that as this vessel is not classed with this Society, the certificate issued by you should have been certificate "C" and not certificate "B", also that no reference should have appeared in your recommendation as to the continuance of the vessel's classification with the Society. I enclose for your information a copy of circular No.593, which deals with this question, and I have to request you will be guided accordingly in future.
