Enclosures:

The Secretary
Sir

In connection with the case of the steam towing drifter "Maggie Gault", and correspondence of January last, I now beg to forward certain telegrams which have passed between the owner at Lossiemouth and this office, respecting the examination of the screw shaft, and with regard to same would state, that owing to the number of vessels being daily placed on the various slipways, and pontoons at this port, it was impossible for me, without due notice, to make the journey to Lossiemouth, which occupies an entire day, and on the receipt of the owner's latest telegram, no further action was taken in the matter—

Respectfully submitting this statement for the information of the Committee.

I am Sir,

Your obedient servant.

Ridley Wooll.
