

Feb.27th 1903

To Lloyds Engineer Surveyor

Swansea

Dear Sir,

The s.s."Otto" under my management was drydocked last March at Swansea when you condemned the shaft and I had some trouble to get you to allow the shaft to remain for six months. When over in England a few days ago I carefully examined the shaft and could not find any reason for condemnation.

Your explanation in the matter will oblige.

Yours truly.

(Sign) With R. Cundown

© 2021

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

W1525-0137