10th February, 1914.

H. Gentlemen,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 7th instant respecting the steam trawler "ORCADES", and with regard thereto I shall be glad to learn whether it is to be understood that this vessel is now laid up at your port and is not to be again employed until she fits out in the coming summer.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,

G R I M S B Y.
