Sir,

I duly received a copy of your letter dated 11th instant to H. Fredriksen Esq. of Sandefjord, on the case of the steamer "Opland", and in connection with this matter I beg to state, that I am now in receipt of a letter from this gentleman incloseing also your letter; he states that he has written to the master about the matter in question and also that he has had an answer from him, saying that the requirement should be executed as soon as possible, but without loosing of time. The Owner says that he will talk to me on the matter when he comes to Christiania.

It will probably in the near future have to take a trip to Sandefjord and I will than make it a point to see Mr. Fredriksen, and it will at once let you know the result of the conference.

I am Sir,

Your obedient servant

OC Sanne

The Secretary.
