Dear Sirs,

s.s. "CHARLWOOD".

This steamer is now loading at the South Metropolitan Gas Co.'s, Ordnance Wharf, East Greenwich, and your Mr. Young expressed a desire to see the Boiler under steam and to float the safety valves. Thursday afternoon, about 3 p.m. would be a convenient time for your Mr. Young to make his visit.

For your guidance the Wharf is about 5 minutes walk from the Southern Entrance of Blackwall Tunnel.

Would you kindly let us know the tonnage of the engine room space which has been allowed in ascertaining the ship's net register off 600.

Thanking you in anticipation, we are,

Yours faithfully,
