Lloyd's Register of Shipping,

71, Fenchurch Street, E.C. 3.

4th June, 1936.

Dear Sirs,

T.S.S. "CERAMIC"
Messrs. Harland & Wolff's No.432.

E.

With reference to your letter of the 25th ultimo, with enclosed plans advised therein, regarding the proposed classification of the above vessel with this Society, I have the pleasure to inform you that, provided the working parts of the machinery be opened up, examined and found in good order and the sizes be as shown on the plans, the boilers be examined internally and externally, found in good and safe working condition and their scantlings be in accordance with the plan, the pumping arrangements be examined and found in satisfactory condition and in accordance with the plans, the machinery of this vessel will be accepted and a notation of LMC (with date), but without the distinguishing mark "A", assigned.

I may add that the plans furnished by your goodselfs are being forwarded to the Society's Surveyors at Glasgow, for their information and guidance in dealing with the case.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Messrs. Shaw, Savill &
Albion Co. Ltd.
