

COPY.

6th March, 1922.

Dear Mr. Rippon,

I have just heard from Mr. P. T. Brown, one of the Society's Surveyors at Genoa, that you are at present on a visit to this City.

I should very much like to take the opportunity of making your personal acquaintance, and I shall be much gratified if you can make it convenient to take lunch with us at this Office at one o'clock tomorrow, Tuesday, the 7th instant, or at the same time on Wednesday or Thursday, as may best suit your convenience.

Yours faithfully,

M. Rippon, Esq.,
Great Eastern Hotel,
Liverpool Street,
E.C.2.

© 2021

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

W1571-0137