The Secretary,

LONDON.

Sir,

With further reference to the case of the wood drifter "Star Divine", and my letter of the 12th instant, I have now to forward herewith, a letter received from the Owners' Agent at Peterhead, stating that the vessel has proceeded to the West Coast fishing, and that they are unable to state when she will return to Peterhead.

With regard to the delay in the despatch of this information, I have to express my regret that, the draft of this letter was inadvertantly filed, instead of being handed to the typist.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,
