

Lloyd's Register of Shipping,

17 Battery Place,

New York.

July 22, 1937

Dear Sir:

BETHLEHEM SHIPBUILDING CORP. HULL 4327
H.P. TURBINE ROTOR

I herewith enclose a copy of a letter addressed to the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation, which I believe is self-explanatory.

One copy of each plan referred to is being forwarded to you under separate cover.

I am, Dear Sir:

Yours faithfully,

John S. Heck

Senior Engineer Surveyor.

The Secretary,
LONDON.

© 2019

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

Lloyd's Register of Shipping
17 Water Place
New York

Referred to the Chief Engineer Surveyor to advise of
the condition of the engine and
to advise of
the condition of the boiler and
to advise of
the condition of the hull and
to advise of
the condition of the rigging and
to advise of
the condition of the deck and
to advise of
the condition of the cargo and
to advise of
the condition of the stowage and
to advise of
the condition of the lashing and
to advise of
the condition of the securing and
to advise of
the condition of the stowage and
to advise of
the condition of the lashing and
to advise of
the condition of
the securing and

30 JUL 1937

[Handwritten signatures and initials]
John
L. J. 18
W. J. 18
W. J. 18

© 2019

Lloyd's Register
Foundation