The Secretary
London
Sir

I beg to enclose letter received today from Messrs Philip & Son Ltd of Dartmouth enclosing their cheque for fees & expenses in connection with surveys of the wood screw tug "Togo", and request instructions whether I should verify the anchors & cables at their works before they are sent on to the vessel which left early in the month, observing that I have informed ~~that~~ ^{the} builders that they would have to be verified when placed eventually on board the "Togo", and that if seen by me at their works the expenses of my visit would be charged.

I am Sir

Your obedient servant

Wm. L. Long
