Dear Sir,

"REMIER" $

Regarding the withdrawal of the above vessel's class, we should be much obliged if you will kindly inform us the date on which notice of intention to withdraw this vessel's classification was made. The information is asked for by Underwriters in the following circumstances:-

We insured, as brokers, a cargo of coals by this vessel for the voyage, Baltimore to Malmo, and were advised by the Owners Agents that at the time it was probable her class would be withdrawn, which information we communicated to Underwriters, and it was arranged that in this event an additional premium was to be paid by the Assured, of which provision they notified the Owners of the vessel, who agreed to pay the amount of such increased premium.

The Owners Agents have now informed us that the vessel's class was not actually withdrawn until after she had completed the voyage in question, but our Underwriters contend that the date on which notice of the intention to withdraw the class should be the deciding factor, as to whether or not an additional premium is due.

We are, dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,
